Pinellas Area Referees, Inc.

Policy Statement No. 9

Subject: Grievance Committee

1. Pinellas Area Referees, Inc. Board of Directors (BODs) has adopted the following grievance procedure for remedying disputes between the association and members in good standing per the FSHAA Officials Guidebook, paragraph 204.03. (Please note you cannot greave policy by PAR By Laws Act 3B (2a))
2. The chairperson of the Grievance Committee must have three (3) years' experience officiating basketball with varsity status with PAR. The Chair shall be appointed by the PAR President. The Chair must work a game or pay dues by December 1 of the calendar year.
3. This Committee shall hear and render a decision to the Board of Directors on all matters brought against any member concerning suspensions, probations, terminations, and other disciplinary (or otherwise) actions not specifically addressed elsewhere in these policies and the PAR By-laws.
4. Should a member of the Committee be associated in any way with the grievance, he or she shall dismiss himself or herself immediately and entirely from the grievance-process related to such grievance.
5. All grievances must be presented in writing to the Chairperson of the Grievance Committee within five (5) days of the alleged grievance and a copy sent to the President. For a pay issue, the five (5) days are when the official is made aware of a discrepancy (pay sheet via online) in the Arbiter System. The grievance must contain a brief description of the complaint, factual dates, events and a suggested remedy.
6. The Grievance committee will recognize the complaint by notifying the person who has filed the grievance in writing by certified mail, return receipt requested within (30) days. The correspondence will contain 3 suggested dates, with time and location, up to (30) days in the future. It is the responsibility of the Grievant to make one of the suggested.
7. The Grievance Hearing may proceed even if a Party does not appear and also may proceed if a Party leaves the Hearing without a bona fide reason, such as a just-then developed family emergency, sudden personal serious illness, and the like.
8. Each Party must bring sufficient copies of any document he/she intends to introduce as evidence at the Hearing with a copy each for:
 - a. The Grievance Committee
 - b. Grievance Committee Files
 - c. The Other Party
9. Each Party shall make a clear and concise presentation of the case, free from repetition and irrelevancies.
10. Procedures:
 - a) The chairperson will describe and distribute to the committee members the complaint as filed. Following the reading, the grievant may amend the grievance subject to any respondent's having sufficient notice and time to respond to such amended grievance.

b) If the grievance concerns or relates to a discipline matter, then the Grievant presents second, as management presents first; in such regard, management bears the burden of persuasion and of proof to prove just cause for the challenged discipline-imposed.

c) Each Party will be allowed to make a brief Opening Statement, if he/she wishes. An Opening Statement is a brief outline of the issues involved and what facts that Party intends to prove. A Party may waive Opening Statement, but one Party's waiver of the right to make an Opening Statement does not likewise waive the Other Party's right to make an Opening Statement.

d) The grievant will detail each point and may call witnesses to support his or her testimony.

e) At any time during the hearing the committee may ask questions and/or call upon members to provide definitive association policy.

f) Closing Statements may be presented by each Party and consist generally of final arguments by the Parties and brief summations of the testimony and other evidence at the Hearing. Closing Statement is not a time for new evidence, nor shall new evidence be presented then, but rather, Closing Statement is a time for brief summarization of the case such Party presented. A Party may waive Closing Statement, but one Party's waiver shall not be a waiver of the Other Party's right to present Closing Statement.

11. Extensions by either party may be granted upon written requests and acceptance by both parties. In the event the parties cannot agree upon an extension, then the Chairperson shall decide and resolve the problems related to any non-agreed upon extension request.

12. Upon completion of the hearing, the committee will forward its decision within (20) days to the Board of Directors and notify grievant in writing by certified mail.

13. The decision of the Grievance Committee is final.

14. No reprisal, harassment, retribution, nor any other negative action/inaction shall result from a Party's, Witness', Representative's, and/or the Grievance Committee's participation in the Grievance-process

Policy Statement No. 12

Subject: Assignment Committee

Chairperson must have three (3) years of experience officiating basketball with varsity status with PAR. The Chair must have worked a game or paid dues by December 1 of the calendar year.

The Assignment Committee is responsible for overseeing the entire contest assignment procedure within our association. This includes ensuring compliance with requirements on the composition of officiating crews, reviewing and approving each member official's schedule of assigned contests, and making the booking commissioner aware of any corrections that need to be made before the assignment schedule is submitted to the membership. Assignment Committee does not make the assignments (per Official Guidebook). The assignments may not be shared with any other PAR member.

Pinellas Area Referees, Inc.

Policy Statement No. 13

Subject: Recommendation Committee

Chairperson must have three (3) years of experience officiating basketball with varsity status with PAR. The Chair must have worked a game or paid dues by December 1 of the calendar year.

The Recommendation Committee is responsible for reviewing the evaluations of each member official during the regular season. This committee is also responsible for preparing and submitting to the FHSAA Office a list of member officials who deserve consideration for assignment to State Series contests. The Recommendation Committee shall include the Booking Commissioner in all meetings and discussions regarding post season assignments.

Committee members should meet the following minimum requirements:

Must meet FHSAA requirements

Must attend at least five (5) or more PAR training sessions to be eligible for any tournaments and post season crews.

Must act in a professional manner in accordance with all PAR policies and the NFHS Code of Ethics

Along with FHSAA requirements officials that meet the following PAR requirements should be given priority over officials that meet FHSAA requirements but do not meet the following PAR requirements to work post season assignments: must attend at least five (5) or more PAR training sessions to be eligible for any post season crews. If there is a conflict of interest with an assignment/crew the Board will review the assignment/crew and make a decision. Any changes after assignments are made must be approved by the Board.

NOTE A: Members who do not follow PAR policies and receive fine(s) and/or a written reprimand from the Board may be excluded from post season game assignments.

NOTE: B Members assigned to any State Crew can only miss two (2) trainings. New PAR policies, anyone who turns back a game assignment will be fined $195 and will be suspended from being on a 1 or 2 crew for three years. The Board may discuss any extenuating circumstances.
